REVIEWING PROCESS

Academicians and practitioners are cordially invited to submit their completed papers for presentation consideration. Competitive papers in all areas of finance with implications for Asia and the region are particularly welcome. Papers will be assessed in terms of the research question, research design, and the expected contribution of the paper. Submitted papers will go through a double-blind review process by members of the program committee, which is composed of internationally distinguished scholars. Submitting authors will be given the option to indicate, at the point of submission, for their accepted paper to be considered for fast-track review for publication at either the Pacific Basin Finance Journal or the International Review of Finance. Papers selected for fast-track review will have the submission fees waived.

AWARDS FOR COMPETITIVE PAPERS

Accepted academic research papers will be eligible for "Best Paper" awards. At least two best paper awards will be available.
